

Through South Africa: Being an Account of His Recent Visit to Rhodesia, the Transvaal, Cape (Classic Reprint)

Pa( ,J y, (J aaI a. PREFACE. THIS little volume consists of the letters I wrote from Bulawayo, Johannesburg and Pretoria for the journalS outh A frica, which is exclusively devoted to matters relating to the region whence it derives its title. Each letter contains the researches of a week. As the public had already a sufficiency of books dealing with the history, geography, politics, raids and revolts, I confined myself to such impressions as one, who since 1867 had been closely connected with equatorial, northern and western A frica, might derive from a first view of the interior of South A frica. Being in no way associated with any political or pecuniary concern relating to the country, it struck me that my open-minded, disinterested and fresh impressions might be of some interest to others, who like myself had only a general sympathy with its civilisation and commercial development.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
