

Labour and Life of the People, Vol. 8 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Labour and Life of the People, Vol. 8 The Police have the largest families in this section, and very much the largest number of dependents; there being very nearly three dependent persons to each family. The proportion of servants is large (11.6 per cent.) 37,800 servants waiting upon 81,300 persons, or about one-fourth of the total population returned. Of the 207,600 persons without servants, nearly 97,000 occupy more than four rooms per family, or, if under four rooms, have less than one person to a room, and 61,700 have one and under two persons per room, leaving 49,000 who are living under the more or less crowded condition of two or more persons per room.
